Magistrate Wyatt echoed praise to the Clerk’s office and the poll workers. He asked if there was an update on the Whispering Meadows Volunteer Fire Department’s fire truck that was involved in an accident. EMA Director Rick White stated that we are waiting on the adjuster. White expressed his thanks to the City of Elkton for donating a spare truck for us to use until ours is back in service.

Magistrate Ricketts hopes that all citizens get out and vote and thanked all election workers. He furnished pictures of the Henshaw Volunteer Fire Department Facility to the Court and said that a delay in concrete is holding things up at this time.

Magistrate Floyd mentioned that, after the storm, many constituents have asked where the public can take branches, limbs and debris. Judge O’Nan stated that the County has an agreement with the City of Morganfield for the use of the airport on Sandy Lane. Magistrate Wyatt is going to reach out to Mayor Greenwell to see if this location can be unlocked until after cleanup. Sturgis residents can use the Sturgis airport. Floyd encouraged everyone to vote and to attend the football game Friday night to show their support of the Braves undefeated season, which hasn’t happened in 50years. He also gave a shoutout to WMSK and The Sturgis News for their awesome coverage.
